Sponsorship of Family from Afghanistan HAPPY NEWS!

Our Collaborative of St. Susanna's, St. Paul's, Allin Congregational and First Church, Dedham has good news to report! We have secured a three bedroom apartment in West Roxbury for our family. The apartment will be ready for cleaning and furnishing in about a week.

Here's how you can help:

- Volunteer your time to help clean the apartment when it becomes ready
- Donate furniture (a more complete list will come out shortly)
- Donate items that will be needed such as toilet paper, paper towels, cleaning products
- Donate funds which will be used to assist the family in paying their first year's rent

Please e-mail Margaret Lias or call the Parish Office if you would like to assist.

With the apartment secured, we will be able to welcome our family in late October or November.

A Reckoning in Boston A Film by James Rutenbeck

Join online on Friday, Nov. 5, 6:30-8:30 p.m., for a screening of "A Reckoning in Boston," a new documentary by James Rutenbeck (a member of St. Stephen's Church in Boston). A conversation with the filmmakers will follow.

"A Reckoning in Boston" is "an absolute must see—especially for white audiences," wrote Boston Globe film critic Ty Burr about the film, which explores systemic racism, economic inequality, street violence, trauma and lack of affordable housing in Boston by looking at the lives of Kafi Dixon, Carl Chandler and others in Dorchester. The film lends itself well to personal reflection and discussion, particularly for faith groups. It will be aired on PBS's "Independent Lens" in January.

Registration is being handled through the Diocesan Convention registration site, here: <https://bit.ly/3DJE4R8> (one does not have to be a convention participant to register for this Nov. 5 film program).

Coming up next week:

The Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost: Proper 25B

Jeremiah 31:7-9

Psalms 126

Hebrews 7:23-28

Mark 10:46-52

Parishioners who have asked for your prayers:
